SHRINERS ON A PILGRIMAGE

Three Thousand File Through the Gaily-Decorated Oasis of Omaha.

Some on Foot, Some in Charlots, and Others Astride Real Camels from the Deserts of Egypt-Meeting of the Imperial Council.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 15 .- Three thousand Nobles, with gleaming and brilliant apparel, on foot, in carriages and bestride gaily caparisoned camels, wended their way through the Oasis of Omaha this evening. The caravan was a magnificent spectacle, and as it wound around the trail leading from the temple, through the haunts of the traders, it was greeted with a grand display of bunting, illuminated with pyrotechnics. Twenty thousand people gathered along the line of march and witnessed the grand parade of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine, now assembled in Omaha. Marching until 9 o'clock, it disbanded on Farnum street, after having been reviewed by Illustrious Potentate Samuel Briggs, from the Paxton balcony. Then came a grand reception to the Nobles and their ladies, at which they were welcomed by Mayor Bemis, and given the key and the freedom of the city. The rooms of the temples represented here were crowded with Nobles all day and far the night, and there was music to beguie the senses and revive memories of other days. The water bottles [the word "water" is evidently a blunder long upon the backs of the camels, were opened, and the sojourners drank deep of the refreshing liquid. Then, for those who desired deeper draughts, there hither across the burning sands from every State in the Union. The Imperial Council opened this morning, at 9:30 o'clock, in the Masonic Temple. Illustrious Potentate Briggs called the council to order and Imperial Recorder Frank M. Luce, called the roll. In his annual report Potentate Briggs showed that there were in this country sixty-two temples and 22,789 Nobles, against thirteen temples and 425 Nobles in 1878. Of the fraternal dead, Mr. Briggs said: "While none of the active members of this Imperial Council has been summoned to the portals of the unseen temple during the past year. our altars have been draped in mourning for the demise of several prominent in the Aucient Arabic Order in America, as well as one who, by reason of his position as a ruler in the East, had endeared himself to his people." Among the dead named were the following: David Kalakana 830 King of the Hawaiian Islands, a noble of Islam Temple, San Francisco, Cal., who died at San Francisco, Jan. 20, 1891; William Jerman Florence, 830, Grand Shereef of Mecca Temple, New York, and representative of temples in the East, who died at Philadelphia, Nov. 19, 1891; Tewtik Mohammed Pasha, Viceroy Khedive of Egypt, dress the reports of the imperial treasurer. Joseph S. Wright, and the imperial recorder. Frank M. Luse, were read and referred. The imperial recorder, in concluding his address, stated that the Imperial Council was entirely free from debt and bad a balance of $16,571.42 in the treasury. After the committee on jurisprudence made its report the active work of the session began. The question of limiting the number of temples in a State to three, recommended by the committee, called for a great deal of oratory on the part of the nobles, and it was finally decided to leave the whole matter to the discretion of the Imperial Council. Mecca Temple, of New York, will endeavor to have a new office-that of prelate or praying dervish in the Arabicthe constitution providing for a high priest. This afternoon Cincinnati was chosen as the place of meeting in 1893. M. B. Melish. of Cincinnati, was chosen imperial potentate. The other officers elected were: Palmer Hudson, of Pittsburg, deputy imperial potentate; J. T. Field, of San Francisco, chief rabbien; James Locke, of Boston, assistant rabbien.

Four People's Party Advocates Corve Each Other Until All Had Their Death Wounds.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 15.-News has been received here from Macune, this county, to the effect that a bloody and sanguinary tragedy occurred there to-day. The People's party were holding a convention. A quarrel over politics, between Caleb Garret and John Peoples, on one side, and Davis and Burton Brown on the other, began in the meeting. When the convention adjourned the battle commenced. All four men were armed with pistols and bowieknives. Simultaneously they began firing. and when their pistols were empty they closed in with knives and fought in a desperate manner. After they fell to the ground they kept slashing one another until two were dead and the other two so badly injured that they cannot recover.

An Old Burglary at Kokomo Has an Interesting but Not Odorless Sequel.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Aug. 15.-Lida Lang and Louis Sheffler, of this city, were arrested by Sheriff Simmons to-day, for the theft of $640 from Jesse Richenbaugh three years ago. The woman at time was the wife of Richenbaugh's son, and they induced the old man to take his money out of the bank and place it in their care. A few nights thereafter it was pretended that the house was robbed of the money. Three months ago young Richenbaugh and the woman parted, and about the same time was arrested for another theit, for which he is now serving a long jail sentence. To-day he sent for the prosecutor, and admitted that he, and his wife, and Sheffler arranged the conspiracy to rob his father. The woman gave bond, but Sheffler is in jail. Pythian Entertainment in Ripley County.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Osgood, Aug. 15 .- A composite entertainment drew the people for miles around to the grove at Napoleon to-day. The affair was under the anspices of the Knights of Pythias of the region and the Napoleon Sunday-school, and was marshaled by attorney Charles B. Johnson, Rev. Peter Long delivering the address of welcome, and Rev. F. A. Guthrie of Osgood, the response thereto. The Greensburg brass was indulged in. Hon. E. Slater, of Lawrenceburg, was then introduced and read a scholarly address on Pythianism, its history, aims and work. Governor Chase was announced as one of the speakers, but was not present.

Prizes for Easily Solved Puzzles and Town Lots for $5-The Scheme Expesed Through the Efforts of a Resident of Fort Wayne.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 .- The Herald this morning contains a story which would seem to be of interest to Western readers. The headlines say: "Western readers of innocent looking periodicals asked to compete for a cash premium, but get Long island reality instead:" "Another Rideout schemer." "No charge for the land, but the deed will cost you $5 or you may have two for $20." The article referred to says: "Not long ago the American Household Guest strutted upon the stage with its magnificent chance to make $10 out of nothing by simply filling out a number of skeleton names, which any child could have done, and sending them with the price of a subscription. The $10 came in the form of a sand heap in the alleged town of Roselawn Park, L. I., for which you could have a warranty deed on payment of a price. William Weeks Rideout appeared as the presiding genius of this scheme, which the postoffice authorities shut down. The attention of the postal authorities is respectfully called to the Ingleside periodical, of No. 19 Park place, and the Home Circle and Good Times, periodicals, of 119 Nassau street, of which Henry M. Wayne prize-winner wrote a letter that was as saucy as could be. In reply he got this, dated: "The Ingleside, a Family Journal of Choice Literature, 19 Park place, New York, July 15, 1892,"

"Dear Sir-Your letter is received in which you say you have received our order on the Eastport Land Improvement Company for a house lot. We regret that there should be any dissatis-faction at the prize awarded you, as the award of prizes was honestly made and cannot now be changed. We advise you to send the money to the Eastport company and secure your deed to the lot, or two lots, if preferred. This land is worth four times as much as it will cost you, and will probably double in value in less than a year from now. The fact that we have given you a lot does not make you the owner of it. You must have a warranty deed for it, and then. if you wish to sell it, the Eastport Land Improvement Company will do it for you at the first op-portunity and charge you only 5 per cent for its services. Send $5 if you want only one lot and $20 if you want both of them. Very truly yours,

THE INGLESIDE, per Scott. "The Fort Wayne man asked advice of his employer, who told him to go slow and kindly offered to investigate, through one of the commercial agencies, of which he was a subscriber. Regarding the Ingleside Publishing Company the report is:

"June 28-A party named George H. Clarkson, who has an office here, says that the abovenamed is not an incorporation, and that H. M. Rideout is interested in it, but peremptorily refuses further information. H. M. Rideout, who is also in a publishing business at No. 119 Nassau street, tells us that Clarkson, who is doing a jewelry business at No. 19 Park place, un-der style of the National Jewelry Company, started a paper called The Ingleside, which is used to largely advertise articles used as pre-miums to subscribers, etc. He [Clarkson] agreed to furnish the capital for the paper, if Rideout would attend to the publishing and take half profit. Clarkson to attend to the mail. Have issued only a few numbers and paid cash for all purchases. Rideout does not profess to have any means, but is considered honest.

"Regarding the Eastport Land Improve ment Company the following information was vouchsafed:

"It is an incorporated concern, with a capital of $50,000; shares, $100 each. President, Henry 1. Rideout; secretary, Albert Miko; treasurer Henry D. Smith; Herbert H. Brown and Charles H. Richardson directors. The statement filed July 22, 1892, was as follows: Assets-Real estate, $50,000; cash on hand, $5,172; all other assets. $400. Liabilities-Mortgage on real estate, $4,400; capital paid in cash, $5,000; capital paid in other than cash, $45,000. I don't think it takes much genius to read between these lines and estimate the real value of the Eastport Land Improvement Company's earthly possessions. I very much fear the mortgage of $4,400 is a blanket which covers all the avenues from Grand to Blaine and every street in the Cranberry highway."

HOLLE'S DISAPPEARANCE.

Mysterious Letter Announcing His Death Proven Untrue by Investigation.

Several days ago word was received here that Theodore Holle, of this city, had been killed in Kentucky by falling down a thirty-foot embankment on a bicycle. Last Friday his father, in company with E. A. Austin, went to Sandy Hook, Ky., near which place the accident was alleged to have happened. No trace of Holie could be found, one had heard anything of the accident, and the country was found to be so rough it would be next to impossible to travel over the roads on a wheel. Some of Holle's friends are inclined to believe that he has met with foul play, while others thinks he is merely trying to play a joke on his friends and is himself the author of the letter telling of the accident. The writing in the letter is said to resemble his in some respects.

Fell Down a Stairway. About 1 o'clock this morning William Quinn, of the firm of Morgan & Quinn, slipped on the stairway at his place of business, on North Illinois street, and fell to the bottom, striking on his head. The stairway was wet, and there was no railing to catch hold of. He received an ugly gash on the head. Drs. Brennan and Marsee were called and dressed the wound, which is considered serious.

Saloon Brawl.

The saloon at the corner of Lexington avenue and Dillon was the scene of a drunken brawl last night. Some half dozen rowdies in the saloon engaged in a "scrap," in which no one was "barred." One man was knocked out of the door and landed in the gutter, where he lay for a few minutes, when he got up and shambled off. As usual, the police were not around,
